Noelia : Argh, this is just (1) .....

Paul : Susan again?

Noelia : Yeah, Susan. She just keeps (2) ..... me about things that have nothing to do with work and nothing to do with me. What do you think I should do?

Paul : Well, if I were you, I'd email and ask her to stop (3) ..... them.

Noelia : I'm not sure that's a good idea. I have to be (4) ..... what I say as she's quite an important client.

Paul : Erm, I'm not sure then. (5) ..... you could try talking to Yuna about it?

Bob : Er... why don't you try doing nothing?

Noelia : Sorry?

Bob : Perhaps you could just ... do nothing?

Noelia : Really? I'm not too sure about that.

Bob : Well, I (6) ..... this guy I used to work with, Mark, and he kept emailing again and again and again, about all sorts, mostly (7) ..... to work.

Well, I kept (8) ..... politely and he kept sending them. In the end, I stopped (9) ..... to his emails unless they were only about work.

Paul : And what happened?

Bob : He stopped sending them. It's a bit like being faced with a dangerous snake. If you move quickly, it'll bite you, but if you keep very still and do nothing, (10) ..... it'll move away and (11) ..... you alone. I had to learn the hard way.

---

Noelia : Hey, Bob. Have you got a minute?

Bob : Yeah.

Noelia : So, I tried what you (12) ..... and I only responded to Susan's emails about work for a few days. Then (13) ..... what?

Bob : The (14) ..... emails stopped.

Noelia : Yes! Now she only (15) ..... me work-related ones.

Bob : Well, that's very good news.

Noelia : All thanks to you, Bob.

Bob : Any time, Noelia, any time! All in a day's work. Ahh!
