

1 Can, have to or must? Wybierz odpowiednią formę w zdaniach.

Ali: I'm so happy you <sup>0</sup> can / have to come to my house tonight, Ben.

Ben: Yes, and I <sup>1</sup>can't / don't have to go home early.

My parents say that I <sup>2</sup>can / have to stay until 10 o'clock!

I just <sup>3</sup>have to / can ring them when I'm ready to go and Dad will come in his car.

Ali: That gives us lots of time to play games or watch TV. My parents are quite strict.

I <sup>4</sup>mustn't / have to tell them which game I'm playing and I <sup>5</sup>can't / don't have to take food to my bedroom.

Oh, and we <sup>6</sup>don't have to / mustn't have the sound too loud.

Ben: My dad isn't so strict. I <sup>7</sup>mustn't / don't have to show him my games – it's great!

So, <sup>8</sup>does your dad have to / can your dad know all your films too?

Ali: Of course he does!

2 Can, have to or must? Uzupełnij zdania wpisując czasowniki w odpowiedniej formie. Zastosuj zdania twierdzące, przeczące i pytające.

0 I can (can) go to bed late tonight – it's the weekend!

1 You _____ (must) play near busy roads – it's dangerous.

2 _____ (I / can) I have my own Facebook page, Mum? I'm thirteen now!

3 Juan _____ (have to) do his homework – he needs to give it in tomorrow!

4. _____ ( can / you/ help) your sister when she broke her leg?

5. Claire and Toni _____ (have to) catch the bus – their dad is coming to get them in his car.

6 I'm leaving now. I _____ (can) stay any longer because it's very late.

7 I think we _____ (have to) tell your mum and dad that we broke their laptop.

8 Camilla _____ (have to) buy anything for dinner because she went shopping at the supermarket yesterday.

9. I _____ (can) swim at the age of five. I was terrible at that.

5 Przepisz zdania stosując odpowiednie formy czasowników can, have to lub must.

1 Is it OK to put my drink on your desk? =

_____ put my drink on your desk?

2 It's OK for Hannah to go out tonight. =

Hannah _____ go out tonight.

3 Don't talk when you are in the cinema! =

You _____ talk when you are in the cinema!

4 It isn't necessary for Colin to go to school today. =

Colin _____ go to school today.

5 Is it necessary for Petra to cook the dinner today? =

_____ Petra _____ to cook the dinner today?