1. Read the story carefully.

2. Fill in the blanks with the correct form of the verb in parentheses.

3. Pay attention to the context to decide whether to use the simple past or past continuous tense.

An Unforgettable Day

Yesterday was a very special day for me. First, I _____ (arrive) at my friend Juan's house at 3 p.m. While I _____ (walk) to his house, he _____ (call) to tell me he was ready.

When I _____ (arrive), Juan _____ (decide) that it was a good time to cook something delicious. So, while we _____ (cook), his sister _____ (listen to music) in the living room. After cooking, we _____ (sit) at the table and _____ (enjoy) a nice dinner.

Then, Juan _____ (suggest) that we _____ (play games). While we _____ (play), suddenly, the lights _____ (go) out, and everything went dark. Everyone _____ (shout) and _____ (laugh) because it was very funny.

After a while, the lights _____ (come) back on, and we _____ (begin) to dance. Finally, when the night _____ (end), we _____ (decide) that it was an unforgettable day.

LIVEWORKSHEETS