

Part 1: Multiple Choice

Choose the correct option to complete each sentence.

1. I _____ play the piano, but I _____ play the guitar.
 - a) can / can
 - b) can't / can
 - c) can / can't
2. They are _____ cooking, but they _____ bake a cake.
 - a) good at / can
 - b) can't / good at
 - c) good at / can't
3. She _____ speak English, but she _____ speak French very well.
 - a) can / can't
 - b) can't / can
 - c) is good at / can
4. We _____ swim, but we _____ dive.
 - a) can / can't
 - b) are good at / can't
 - c) can't / can
5. He is _____ solving problems, but he _____ do it quickly.
 - a) can't / is good at
 - b) good at / can
 - c) can / good at

Part 2: Complete the Sentences

Fill in the blanks with "can," "can't," "is good at," or "are good at."

1. She _____ playing the violin, but she _____ singing.
2. They _____ play basketball very well because they _____ running and jumping.
3. I _____ dance, but I _____ learning new steps quickly.
4. He _____ math, so he _____ solve difficult problems easily.
5. We _____ drawing, but we _____ painting.

Part 3: Write About Someone You Know

Write sentences about the abilities of a friend or family member. Use "can," "can't," and "be good at."

- My friend can _____.
- My friend can't _____.
- My friend is good at _____.

Part 4: Reading Comprehension

Read the text below and answer the questions.

"My brother is really talented. He can play the guitar and the drums. He's also good at singing, so he often performs in school concerts. However, he can't dance very well. He's trying to learn, but it's not easy for him. He is also very good at math and helps me with my homework. I'm proud of him because he can do so many things!"

Questions:

1. What instruments can the writer's brother play?
2. What is the writer's brother good at besides music?
3. What can't the writer's brother do well?
4. How does the writer feel about their brother?

Part 5: True or False

Write "True" or "False" for each statement, then correct the false statements.

1. I can play the guitar, but I can't play the piano. _____
2. I am good at cooking, and I can bake cakes. _____
3. I can't swim, but I can dive. _____
4. I am not good at speaking English. _____
5. I can run fast, but I am not good at playing soccer. _____