

Friendship

Friendship is a special bond between two or more people. A good friend is kind and caring. They are always there to offer company and support. When you have a friend, you feel safe and can trust them. Trust is very important in a friendship. It means you can rely on your friend to be honest and keep your secrets. A close friend is someone you can share your feelings and thoughts with. Your best friend is someone you can always count on, no matter what. Sometimes, friends may have disagreements or disappointments. It's important to be patient and try to understand how your friend is feeling. A true friend will forgive you for your mistakes and will always be there to help you.

After carefully reading the previous reading, answer the questions.

- What is friendship?
 - a) A new way to be.
 - b) A special bond between two or more people
 - c) A romantic relationship
- What makes a good friend?
 - a) A good friend leave you alone
 - b) A good friend gives you money
 - c) A good friend is kind, caring, and trustworthy
- Why is trust important in a friendship?
 - a) It allows you to feel safe and secure with your friend
 - b) So you can feel sad with them
 - c) To ask for money
- A true friend will....
 - a) Leave you alone
 - b) Forgive you and will always be there for you
 - c) Be rude to you
- What should you do if you have a disagreement with a friend?
 - a) Be patient and try to understand how your friend is feeling
 - b) Tell your friend that is not a big deal
 - c) Ignore it

