Relative Pronouns

I. Match the clauses in column A with the ones in column B.

1. I'd like a husband who ___	a. are supportive.
2. I want a job that ___	b. I have never met.
3. I enjoy classmates who ___	c. offers health insurance.
4. I'd like a best friend that ___	d. I can meet regularly at a café.
5. I have relatives who ___	e. is reliable and honest.

II. Rewrite these statements to join both clauses using a relative pronoun.

1. I don't like speaking with people. They are nosy. (who)
   - _____
2. Sabrina doesn't like men. They are mama's boys. (who)
   - _____
3. I want a boss. I can rely on her. (that)
   - _____
4. Claudine wants a husband. He isn't egotistical. (who)
   - _____
5. I'd enjoy working with teammates. They are easygoing and fun. (that)
   - _____
6. I don't want a girlfriend. I can't watch movies with her. (that)
   - _____

III. Read the following statements. Is the relative pronoun working as a subject or an object? Write S (subject) or O (object). It's an object pronoun if it's optional.

1. I need a friend who understands me. ____
2. He's trying to find a car that he feels comfortable driving. ____
3. She prefers books that are based on true stories. ____
4. They're looking for a recipe that they can easily make. ____
5. We're looking for a teacher who can speak French. ____
6. He's looking for a hobby that he can do on weekends. ____
7. I love movies that make me laugh. ____
8. She met someone who shares her hobbies. ____

LIVEWORKSHEETS