My Diary by Sam Smith, Age 10

Tuesday, April 15

It was our school trip today! It was great! We visited a natural history museum to find out more about dinosaurs. Then we went to a park to eat lunch, but we didn't stay long because it was too cold.

The art gallery was the best! We looked at paintings by Mexican artists to help us with our new art project. At the gift shop, I bought my mom a mug. I think she likes it!
