The Selfish Giant	1
A Fairy Tale by Oscar Wilde	2

Every <sup>1</sup> afternoon , as they were coming from school, <sup>2</sup> the	4
children used to go and play in the <sup>3</sup> Giant's garden.	5
It <sup>4</sup> was a large <sup>5</sup> lovely garden, with <sup>6</sup> soft green grass. Here	6 and there <sup>7</sup> over the grass stood beautiful flowers like stars,	7
and <sup>8</sup> there were twelve <sup>9</sup> peach-trees that in the <sup>10</sup> spring-	8
time broke out into delicate blossoms of pink and pearl,	9
and in the <sup>11</sup> autumn bore rich fruit. The birds <sup>12</sup> sat on the	10
trees and sang <sup>13</sup> so sweetly that the children <sup>14</sup> used to	11
stop their games in order to listen to them. <sup>15</sup> "How happy	12
we <sup>15</sup> are here!" they cried to each other.	13
	14
One day the Giant came back. He <sup>16</sup> had been to visit his	15
friend the <sup>17</sup> Cornish ogre, and had stayed with him <sup>18</sup> for	16
seven years. After the seven years <sup>19</sup> were over he had said	17
all that he had to say, for <sup>20</sup> his conversation was <sup>21</sup> limited ,	18 and he <sup>22</sup> determined to return to his <sup>23</sup> own castle. When	19
he arrived he saw the children <sup>24</sup> playing in the garden.	20
<sup>25</sup> "What are you doing here?" he cried in a very <sup>26</sup> gruff	21
voice, and the children <sup>27</sup> ran away .	22
