SPELLING PASSAGE #5 – HOA'S LITTLE GARDEN

Hoa's Little Garden is about a girl named Hoa who wanted a garden but didn't have enough space in her small apartment. At school, Hoa's class planted bean seeds that grew into a bean plant, but it died at home because it didn't have the right conditions. One day, Hoa noticed sunlight on a corner of her balcony and realized she could use it for a garden. She asked her mom, who agreed to let her have a very small garden. Hoa decided to plant a passion fruit because she wanted both flowers and fruit. Hoa's mom got her a pot, a spade and some soil they used to plant the seeds in the dirt. She took care of the plant every day, and soon, a tiny sprout appeared. The sprout grew into a vine, which produced a beautiful flower and, eventually, a delicious passion fruit. The vine grew so much that it even reached her neighbour's balcony. In conclusion, Hoa's family and her next-door neighbour had a bowl full of tasty passion fruit to enjoy.
