

Do you believe everything you read?

NEWS

A. Check each statement True or False.

Mauro

Maiko

Rob

Christiane

Lorayn

- | | True | False |
|--|--------------------------|--------------------------|
| 1. Mauro thinks that newspapers are more likely to check their sources carefully than Internet news sites are. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 2. Maiko thinks the Internet is a more reliable source of information than other sources of information. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 3. Rob generally believes information from newspapers. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 4. Christiane trusts European news sources more than American sources. | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |
| 5. Lorayn fully trusts what she reads in the New York Times . | <input type="checkbox"/> | <input type="checkbox"/> |

Use information from the video segment to complete each sentence.

1. According to Maiko, news from _____, _____, and _____ have a similar level of credibility.
2. Mauro says that you can never fully trust information, even from _____.
3. Christiane gets her news from three countries: _____, _____, and _____.
4. Lorayn says she does not trust sources of information such as _____.

SUM1U9