Hi everyone! It's Angelina, and I'm 13 years old from Moscow. Guess what? I just spent the most amazing two weeks of my life at a summer camp at Ridley College in Canada. And let me tell you, it was anything but boring.

Ridley College is this huge, beautiful campus with its own dorms, classrooms, and even a health centre. I felt like I was living in a castle! And the best part? I wasn't alone. There were students from over 60 countries, and everyone was so welcoming and supportive.

My days were packed with fun activities. We went on exciting excursions to Niagara Falls, climbed trees at Tree Trekking, and even did some outlet mall shopping. But my favourite part was definitely the classes. They were all about improving my English, but in the most engaging way possible. We did projects, played games, and even went on field trips to learn about Canadian culture. I made tons of new friends, boosted my English skills, and discovered a whole new country.

I must say that I learned so much during my two weeks at camp. It was the most exhilarating summer ever!
