

Name: _____
Class: _____

UNIT 5: THE WORLD OF WORK
Lesson 8: Looking back

Pronunciation

137 Read the conversations and underline the stressed auxiliary and modal verbs. Listen and check. Then practise saying the sentences in pairs.

- A: Have you started working for the new company?
B: Yes, I have. I started last week.
- A: Can people with no experience apply for this job?
B: Yes, they can. We provide on-the-job training.
- A: Do you like your job?
B: Yes, I do. I wasn't interested in the job at first, but I'm quite interested in it now.
- A: You haven't sent the email to the customer.
B: I have sent it.

Vocabulary

Choose the correct words to complete these sentences.

- I have some flexible/relevant information for the job you're looking for.
- You have to improve your communication skills if you want to be employed/applied in the hospitality industry.
- The company will give you a bonus/wage for your good performance at work.
- Physically challenging/interesting jobs can allow you to exercise while you work.

Grammar

Circle the mistake in each sentence.

- Despite my grandfather has retired, he still works as a volunteer teacher in the local school.
A B C D
- I quitted my previous job so it was so tiring.
A B C D
- I decided to join the English club such that I can practise my English more frequently.
A B C D
- The job will give you not only a good salary but a good chance for promotion.
A B C D

A+ EXAM TIPS

page 145

