

1.CEO:

A. Chief executive officer

B. Chief expensive overthinking

C. Chief executive ocd

D. Chief exchange overfly

2. Duplicate

A. Something that is an exact copy of something else

B. Being an exact copy of something

C. To make an exact copy of something

D. To do something again that has already been done, when this is unnecessary

3.Nondescript

A. Very ordinary, or having no boring or exciting features or qualities

B. Very compliment, or having no interesting or exciting features or qualities

C. Very ordinary, or having no interesting or exciting features or qualities

D. Very common, or having no interesting or exciting features or qualities

4. Cavorts

A. To jump or move ground in a playful way, sometimes noisily, and often in a sexual way

B. To jump or move around in a playful way, sometimes noisily, and often in a sexual way

C. To jump or move around in a playful way, always noisily, and often in a sexual way

D. To jump or move around in a playful way, sometimes noisily, and often in a sexy way

5.Chant

- A. To repeat or sing a word or phrase continuously
- B. To record or sing a word or phrase continuously
- C.To repeat or sing a word or phrase continuous
- D.To repeat or say a word or phrase continuously

6.Stoop

- A.To bend the bottom half of the body forward and down
- B.To bend the bottom half of the body forward and up
- C.To bend the top full of the body forward and down
- D.To bend the top half of the body forward and down

7.Croon

- A. To sing or talk in a sweet, low voice full of emotion
- B. To play or talk in a sweet, high voice full of emotion
- C. To sing or talk in a home, low voice full of emotion
- D. To play or sing in a sweet, low voice full of emotion

8.Oldie

- A. An old popular song
- B. A new popular song
- C. An old unpopular song
- D. A new unknown song

9.Stratosphere

- A. A layer in the upper atmosphere of a planet where the temperature creases with height

B. A layer in the upper atmosphere of a planet which the temperature increases with height

C. A layer in the upper atmosphere of a planet where the temperature increases with height

D. A layer in the below atmosphere of a planet where the temperature increases with height

10. Revenue

A. The salary that a government or company receives regularly

B. The salary that a governments or companies receives regularly

C. The income that a governments or companies receives regularly

D. The income that a government or company receives regularly

11. Innovation

A. A new idea or recipe

B. A new idea or method

C. A new creation or method

D. An old idea or method

12. Vicious

A. Used to describe an object, condition, or remark that causes great physical or emotional pain

B. Used to describe an object, condition, or remake that causes great physical or emotional pain

C. Used to describe an object, condition, or remake that causes bad physical or emotional pain

13. Mountainside

A. The side or top of a mountain

- B. The side or slope of a mountain
 - C. The side or bottom of a mountain
 - D. The side or under of a mountain
14. Vigor
- A. Strength, enemy, or enthusiasm
 - B. Strength, enter, or enthusiasm
 - C. Strength, engineer, or enthusiasm
 - D. Strength, energy, or enthusiasm
15. Chilly
- A. Cold
 - B. Hot
 - C. Cool
 - D. Warm