Choose the correct option

1. There isn't _____ at reception.
2. _____ checked our tickets on the train.
3. We went _____ nice to eat.
4. James looked _____ for his phone.
5. I don't want to stay _____ that's expensive.
6. There isn't _____ to do in my village.
7. _____ is so expensive here!
8. Will _____ help us with our heavy luggage?
9. _____ in Dublin was so friendly. I really want to go back again.

FINE & FLOW
www.fineandflow.com
LIVEWORKSHEETS

Complete the text with words starting with some-, any-, no- or every-.

The Hans Brinker is a hotel in Amsterdam for people who need somewhere cheap to stay, but it's not a normal hotel. The owners of the Hans Brinker say that their hotel is the worst hotel in the world! In their funny advertisements they say there isn't _____ good about their hotel: there's _____ to eat or drink, or do; there's _____ to put your clothes (apart from a small locker) and there's _____to deal with your problems at reception. But does _____ who goes there agree? No, they don't. Guests say that the place is fun and friendly, and it has a great, central location – you can travel _____ in Amsterdam very easily. Most agree there's _____ like it.

LIVEWORKSHEETS