

CONJUNCTIONS (and, or, but)

1. James is hard working ___ he hasn't got enough money to buy a new car.

- a. and
b. or
c. but

5. My son played dangerously ___ he never hurts himself.

- a. and
b. or
c. but

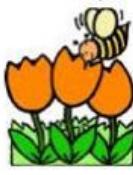

9. Are they eating ___ talking?

- a. and
b. or
c. but

13. There are many flowers ___ bees in my garden.

- a. and
b. or
c. but

17. We can eat the watermelon quickly ___ we don't like any durian.

- a. and
b. or
c. but

21. You should go home ___ do your homework.

- a. and
b. or
c. but

2. I would like to be alone ___ I don't want any contact.

- a. and
b. or
c. but

3. Bruce ___ Pam will marry soon.

- a. and
b. or
c. but

4. Will you go to work ___ to see the doctor?

- a. and
b. or
c. but

6. Would you like lemonade ___ orange juice?

- a. and
b. or
c. but

7. My uncle is very tired ___ needs to rest.

- a. and
b. or
c. but

8. We can't buy everything ___ we can buy something.

- a. and
b. or
c. but

10. I ___ my husband always swim ___ we aren't thin.

- a. and, but
b. or, but
c. and, or

11. I like a dog ___ a cat.

- a. and
b. or
c. but

12. Do you like our works ___ their works?

- a. and
b. or
c. but

13. There are many flowers ___ bees in my garden.

- a. and
b. or
c. but

15. This cat has just injured its tail ___ eye.

- a. and
b. or
c. but

16. Bruce is a strict man ___ he likes to dance.

- a. and
b. or
c. but

17. We can eat the watermelon quickly ___ we don't like any durian.

- a. and
b. or
c. but

18. Did you go with us ___ her? I went with her.

- a. and
b. or
c. but

19. We drank some coffee ___ some bread.

- a. and
b. or
c. but

20. Will he ride a motorcycle ___ a bicycle?

- a. and
b. or
c. but

21. You should go home ___ do your homework.

- a. and
b. or
c. but

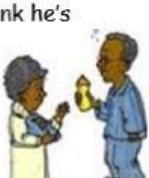

22. Mrs. Hall never worked hard ___ she is rich.

- a. and
b. or
c. but

23. Does our grandson want to feed ___ to sleep? I think he's hungry.

- a. and
b. or
c. but

24. I'm not sure. My friends go straight ahead ___ turn left.

- a. and
b. or
c. but

