Discover the Isles of Scilly by air or sea

(a) Thinking about where to go for your next trip can be stressful! The Isles of Scilly Steamship Group provides you with two great choices to enjoy a day trip to the islands. Whether you choose a (b) ..... cruise on Scillonian III or to fly on Skybus (the islands' own airline), and whatever time of year you are (c) ....., you'll be sure to enjoy the (d) ..... natural beauty of the islands.

Exotic plants, ancient monuments and (e) ..... castles, (f) ..... white sands and a bright blue sea – all the treasures of the islands await you. They are located only 45 km from England's Land's End, but they are (g) ..... with touches of the Tropics.

The Isles are populated by a community of 2000 islanders, and there are five inhabited islands.

(h) ..... just one will make your day trip memorable. Journeys between the islands are available from St Mary's Quay, but it's always worth (i) ..... times and tides for availability.

St Mary's, where the airport is situated, is the largest of the islands. Hugh Town, its capital, is the commercial centre, (j) ..... a great choice of shops, restaurants and cafés. After (k) ....., don't miss the exhibits at the museum or a walk round the Garrison and the Elizabethan fort.
