C Read the paragraph. Circle the correct quantifier.

I always carry (1) (too much/too many) things in my backpack. Of course, I have (2) (a lot of/much) books because I'm a student! I have a really big dictionary with (3) (some/many) pages, so it's very heavy. And I carry (4) (too few/too many) notebooks—I have a different notebook for each class. I also like to bring (5) (a little/some) magazines to read between classes. Of course, I have (6) (a few/a little) cookies for a snack, and if I get thirsty, I have (7) (a few/a little) water in a bottle. And today, I have (8) (a little/a lot of) DVDs in my backpack—my friend wants to watch them. My backpack probably weighs 10 kilos!

D What's in your backpack or bag right now? Make a list of things. Use quantifiers like a few, some, a little, a lot of, many.
