

An adjective describes a noun and comes before it.

An adverb describes a verb and comes after it.

She speaks English fluently.

She is a fluent English speaker.

Choose the correct one:

My friend plays tennis bad – badly.

They compose music brilliant – brilliantly.

Heba can sing beautiful – beautifully.

You speak slow – slowly.

Can you cook? No, I'm a bad – badly cook.

Can you speak English? – No, I can't. I speak English bad – badly.

Complete the sentence - use adjectives or adverbs :

Old people usually drive _____. (slow)

In April often rains _____. (heavy)

The man looks at me _____. (angry)

We work _____ every day. (hard)

It's a _____ way. (dangerous)

Please, be _____! (careful)

Our team plays football _____. (bad)

This music is _____. (loud)

Don't speak! We want to sit here _____ (quiet)

You can open it _____. (easy)

She is _____ sorry for her mistake. (terrible)