

Read the text and choose the correct word for each space.

A NEW CRUISE SHIP

One (1) _____ the biggest passenger ships in history, the Island Princess, carries people (2) _____ cruises around the Caribbean. More (3) _____ double the weight of the Titanic (the large passenger ship which sank in 1912), it was (4) _____ large to be built in (5) _____ piece. Instead, 48 sections (6) _____ total were made in different places. The ship was then put together at a shipbuilding in Italy.

The huge weight of the Island Princess is partly due (7) _____ her enormous height, (8) _____ is an incredible 41 metres. (9) _____ compared with the Titanic, she is also a much broader ship. As (10) _____ as length is concerned, there is little difference – the Island Princess (11) _____ over 250 metres long, similar to the length of the Titanic.

The Island Princess can carry (12) _____ to 2,600 passengers and (13) _____ 1,321 cabins, including 25 specially designed for use (14) _____ disabled passengers. (15) _____ is entertainment on board to suit (16) _____ age and interest, (17) _____ dancing to good drama. The Island Princess seems very likely to (18) _____ a popular holiday choice for many years to (19) _____, even though most people will have to save up in order to be (20) _____ to afford the trip.

Source: First Certificate in English 3