Text 2 A Read the riddles.

① Whose things are these?
Some are metal; some are plastic.
Some have teeth but cannot eat.
They make your hair nice and neat.
Most people use them every day.
Bald people don't — their hair went away!
Whose things are these?

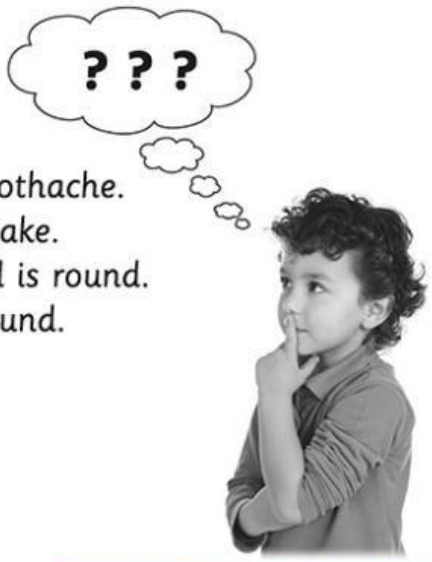

② Whose thing is this?
One part goes in the owner's ears.
It's for listening to your chest.
It feels cold under your vest.
Hush! Hear your heart — de-dum, de-dum …
It sounds just like banging on a drum.
Whose thing is this?

③ Whose things are these?
They are not expensive
But they are important at school.
Pupils can't use them, that's the rule.
On the board, you need them to write.
There are many colours but there's no white.
Whose things are these?

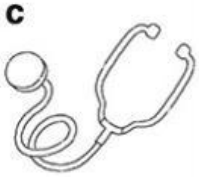

④ Whose thing is this?
You can hold it in your hand.
You may see one when you have a toothache.
Some think it is as frightening as a snake.
It has a narrow handle. The other end is round.
Put it in your mouth. Have a look around.
Whose thing is this?
