

CONVERSATION AND DISCUSSION

Instructions: Read the statements carefully. Click happy face if the statement is correct and sad face if not.

Pair conversations are when you talk with just one other person.

Listening is an important part of participating in any type of discussion.

It is fine to ignore someone who is speaking in a group discussion.

Whole-class discussions help everyone learn from each other's ideas.

In group discussions, everyone should take turns sharing their ideas.