

★ ALL STARS ★

LISTENING TEST!

Listen to an English teacher using the Present Perfect to talk about his relevant experiences. After you listen, answer these questions:

- What does he think about extreme sports in general?
- Why did he mention skateboarding first when talking about extreme sports?
- How does he describe his early experience with snowboarding?
- Why does he prefer snowboarding over skiing?
- What activities does he consider not as extreme but still exciting?

This time, you are going to listen and watch the video with subtitles.

Answer with affirmative and negative forms using the Present Perfect.

- Has he ever tried skateboarding?
- Has he ever broken a bone while skateboarding?
- Has he ever attempted vert skating?
- Has he ever gone snowboarding?
- Has he ever enjoyed his first snowboarding experience?
- Has he ever liked skiing as a child?
- Has he ever successfully stood up while surfing?
- Has he ever tried wakeboarding?
- Has he ever gone parasailing?
- Has he ever tried skydiving?

SPEAKING: HAVE YOU EVER?

Have you ever gone skateboarding?

Have you ever gone snowboarding?

Have you ever gone skiing?

Have you ever gone surfing?

Have you ever gone wakeboarding?

Have you ever gone parasailing?

Have you ever gone skydiving?

Have you ever gone hang gliding?

Think of other sports and activities but with the verbs DO / PLAY

I have / I have never

DONE

PLAYED