

Directions: Write a narrative story about what is happening in this picture. Make sure you include the characters, the plot (beginning, middle, and end), and a problem and solution.

Grading Rubric

|                                                                                           |           |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------|
| Capitalization:Each sentence begins with a capital letter                             | 20 Points |
| Punctuation:Each sentence ends with a punctuation mark                                | 20 Points |
| Plot:Includes a problem and solution                                                  | 20 Points |
| Composition:Includes a beginning, middle, and end of the story in an organized manner | 20 Points |
| Completion:Student completes at least five to six sentences                           | 20 Points |