Part 3: Reading Comprehension (10 points)

Read the following text and answer the questions below.

Renting a Car

When you rent a car, there are several things to consider. First, you need to choose the right size car for your needs. A small car is good for city driving, while a larger car is better for long trips. Next, you should compare prices from different rental companies. Don't forget to ask about extra fees, such as insurance or mileage charges.

Before you drive the car, check it carefully for any damage. Report any problems to the rental company immediately. When you return the car, make sure it has a full tank of gas, unless your rental agreement says otherwise.

Remember, you must have a valid driver's license to rent a car. Some companies also have age restrictions. Always read the rental agreement carefully before signing it.

Answer the following questions:

1. What is a small car good for?

- a) long trips b) city driving c) off-road adventures d) racing

2. What should you do before driving the rental car?

- a) fill it with gas b) check for damage c) clean it d) change the oil

3. What do you need to have to rent a car?

- a) A credit card b) A passport c) A valid driver's license d) A bank statement

4. True or False: You should always return the car with an empty gas tank. _____

5. What should you do if you find damage on the car before driving it?

- a) Fix it yourself b) Ignore it c) Report it to the rental company d) Take photos
