

ADMIT-ADMITTED-ADMITTED

- to agree that you did something bad, or that something bad is true
- to say something is true

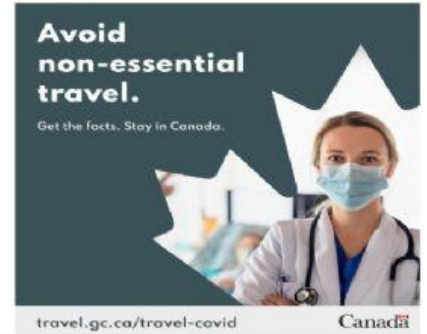

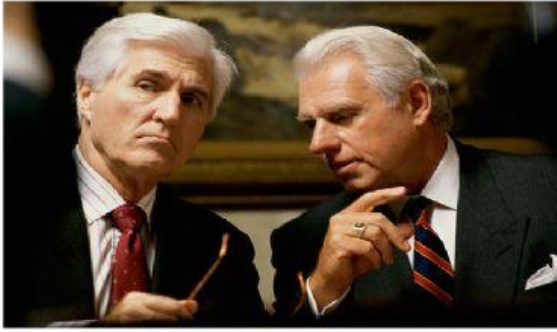

- To allow someone to enter a place

Examples:

Both men admitted to taking illegal drugs.
I was wrong – I admit it.
She finally admitted the truth.

It says on the ticket 'admit one'.
No one will be admitted to the Zoom meeting without valid ID.

ADVISE-ADVISED-ADVISED

- to tell someone that they should do something

- to tell somebody what you think is best

Examples:

I advised him to take a good decision.

The doctor advised him to exercise more.

Authorities are advising against travel during the pandemic time.

AGREE-AGREED-AGREED

- to have the same opinion as someone

- To decide something with someone

- to say you will do something that someone asks you to do

Examples:

I agree with you.

We all agreed that mistakes had been made.

They have finally agreed on a name for their baby.

We never agree on/about anything.

They agreed to meet on Sunday.

We agreed to share the cost.

We can't agree on which city to visit.

She agreed to help the old man.

AFFECT-AFFECTED-AFFECTED

- to cause a change in someone or something

- to cause a strong motion, especially sadness

- to change or influence

Examples:

The problems are affecting him.

Try not to let her criticism affect you.

Global warming has affected the planet.

AFFORD-AFFORDED-AFFORDED

- to have/not have enough money to buy something or enough time to do something

- to be able to do something without risk.

Examples:

Can we afford a new house?
I can't afford to wait.

We can't afford to waste time.
They can afford to buy a new car every year.