

Choose the correct option to describe these pictures.

Complete the sentences using the correct demonstrative adjective or pronoun (this, that, these, those)

1. You're showing your colleague a report you just printed:
 - "Can you please check _____ report for any errors?"
2. You point to some documents on the far end of the table:
 - "Could you pass me _____ documents?"
3. You're discussing a recent meeting with your manager:
 - "_____ was a very productive meeting, wasn't it?"
4. You're holding a set of business cards you received today:
 - "_____ are the business cards from the new clients."
5. You're pointing to a presentation slide on the screen in front of you:
 - "_____ slide clearly shows our quarterly results."
6. You're holding a stack on contracts that need signing:
 - "_____ contracts need your signature by the end of the day."
7. You're pointing to a row of empty desks on the other side of the office:
 - "_____ desks are reserved for the new interns."
8. You're handing a client a brochure during a meeting:
 - "Please take _____ brochure to learn more about our services."
9. You're talking about a team-building event that happened last year:
 - "_____ was one of the best event we've ever organized."

FINE & FLOW

www.fineandflow.com

 LIVEWORKSHEETS