

VERB TO "BE"

SUBJECT PRONOUNS	I	You
	am / 'm	are / 're
Positive Form	Negative Form	Question Form
• I am • I'm	• I am not • I'm not	• Am I...?
• You are • You're	• You are not • You're not • You aren't	• Are you...?

Complete the sentences using am or are.

- I _____ a student.
- You _____ from Brazil.
- I _____ in the classroom.
- You _____ a teacher.
- I _____ American.
- You _____ from Japan.
- I _____ in the library.
- You _____ at home.
- I _____ Brazilian.
- You _____ a good student.
- I _____ happy today.
- You _____ my friend.

VERB TO "BE"

Rewrite the sentences using am not or are not (aren't).

- I am from Canada. → I _____ from Canada.
- You are my teacher. → You _____ my teacher.
- I am a doctor. → I _____ a doctor.
- You are tired. → You _____ tired.
- I am ready. → I _____ ready.
- You are at work. → You _____ at work.
- I am a student. → I _____ a student.
- You are from Brazil. → You _____ from Brazil.
- I am in the classroom. → I _____ in the classroom.
- You are a teacher. → You _____ a teacher.
- I am American. → I _____ American.
- You are from Japan. → You _____ from Japan.

Write yes/no questions using am I or are you.

- I am a student. → _____ a student?
- You are from Brazil. → _____ from Brazil?
- I am in the classroom. → _____ in the classroom?
- You are a teacher. → _____ a teacher?
- I am American. → _____ American?
- You are from Japan. → _____ from Japan?
- I am in the classroom. → _____ in the classroom?
- You are from Germany. → _____ from Germany?
- You are a teacher. → _____ a teacher?
- I am tired. → _____ tired?
- You are happy. → _____ happy?
- I am your friend. → _____ your friend?

