Herman the Class Dragon

Directions:
Use the words from the Word Box to complete the story below.

Word Box

around	flew
behind	grew
because	going
done	through
does	above

Our teacher returned from vacation with a very small dragon. We named him Herman _____(1) when we said "Herman" he flared his nostrils and looked like he was _____(2) to smile. We kept him in a big tank. That way, we could look _____(3) the glass and watch him sleep or reach his head _____(4) his body to lick his wings clean.

As Herman got bigger, his wings also _____(5). One of our class jobs was lifting Herman high _____(6) our heads so that he could practice flapping his wings. We would have one kid supporting his front and another _____(7) him. Afterward, we would pet Herman's scales and tell him he had _____(8) a good job. Practicing seemed to tire him out.

That is until last Monday, when Herman _____(9) up and perched on top of the highest bookshelf. He gave us a toothy smile the way he sometimes _____(10) and flapped his wings proudly.

LIVEWORKSHEETS