LION AND THE MOUSE

Once upon a time, there was a lion who was sleeping in the forest. A little mouse came running by and accidentally ran over the lion's nose. The lion woke up angrily and caught the mouse.
"I'm going to eat you!" roared the lion.
The mouse begged, "Please let me go! I'll help you someday if you let me live."
The lion laughed, but he let the mouse go.
A few days later, the lion was caught in a hunter's net. He roared loudly, trying to break free. The mouse heard the lion's roars and ran to help him. The mouse chewed the ropes of the net and freed the lion.
"You were right, little mouse," said the lion. "You saved my life. Thank you!"

Are the sentences T (true) or F (false)?

1. The lion was hunting when the mouse ran over his nose.
2. The lion wanted to eat the mouse because he was angry.
True
3. The mouse promised to help the lion someday if he was set free.
4. The lion did not believe that the mouse could help him but still let him go.
5. The lion was caught in a hunter's trap, and the mouse saved him by chewing the ropes.
6. After being freed, the lion immediately ran away and did not thank the mouse.
7. The moral of the story is that only the strong can help others.
8. The mouse did not actually help the lion escape from the net.

LIVEWORKSHEETS