

Grammar training

Special Questions

Match the two halves.

1. When does Ben usually hit the books?
2. How does Lizzie put herself through college?
3. Why do you go the extra mile when preparing for exams?
4. Why are you disrupting your routine this week?
5. Who talks to the neighbors more often, you or your sister?
6. When do you have a snack during the day?
7. Whom are you giving a lift?
8. Why are you ironing the clothes tonight?
9. Who makes coffee for the whole family in the morning?
10. Who helps you with your homework?

She manages by working two part-time jobs and studying when she can.

It's all because I have some new responsibilities at work.

He prefers to do it early in the morning when his mind is fresh.

We do it to make sure we're fully prepared and confident.

I like to grab something around 3 p.m.

I am picking up my little brother; he finishes school around 4 p.m.

I'm sure she does.

My dad gives me a hand whenever I'm stuck, especially with math.

I am getting everything ready for tomorrow; it's a big day at the office.

Sarah usually takes care of this, especially on weekdays when everyone's in a rush.