

Multiple matching

I can make basic inferences from simple information in a short text.

1 What are you like? Use the adjectives in the box to finish the sentences.

1 I'm ... 2 I'm sometimes ... 3 I'm not ...

active adventurous caring friendly funny hard-working independent optimistic quiet responsible sensible sociable

2 SPEAKING Follow the instructions to complete the task.

- Choose three adjectives in Exercise 1 or your own ideas to describe your partner's personality.
- Read the article quickly and decide which personality type best describes your partner.
- Check if your partner agrees.

3 Read the article and choose the best title.

EXAM FOCUS Multiple matching

4 Read the text again. Match the people (1–5) with the personality types from the text (A–G) that best describe them. There are two extra personality types.

- Joe is very well-organised. Doing the same thing every day doesn't scare him. People enjoy talking to him – they know he will not disappoint them.
- Gena believes in herself and her abilities. But she also wants to improve all the time. She loves books because they teach her new things.
- Kate cares about people and enjoys being with them and having fun. But she also tries to help them grow, to become better, to learn more. She's their motivator.
- Bo feels best when he's on his own. He doesn't like people telling him how to do things. He loves analysing difficult theoretical problems. And he's definitely not an adventurous type.
- Vlad is open and friendly with people he likes, but he also needs some alone-time, when he can rest, relax and think. And what he hates the most is when people fight.

Are you thinking about careers and what kind of job you'd like in the future?

It will help if you ask yourself the question: 'What am I like?'. Some jobs are more suitable for you than others. We've matched jobs to seven different personality types.
