

READING & WRITING WORKSHOP: Review

Vocabulary and expressions

True or False exercise

- | | | |
|---|---|---|
| 1. Your heart rate speeds up when you see butterflies. | T | F |
| 2. Our body produces chemicals in stressful situations. | T | F |
| 3. Flies are not beautiful insects. | T | F |
| 4. If you see a rattlesnake , you should keep still . | T | F |
| 5. Some scientists observe the behavior of animals for research purposes. | T | F |
| 6. The portrait of Mona Lisa doesn't have eyebrows . | T | F |
| 7. Edvard Munch's most famous painting is a landscape . | T | F |
| 8. The expression ' show your true colors ' implies something bad about the person it refers to. | T | F |
| 9. Dogs make noise when they bark . | T | F |
| 10. When somebody is good at gardening, we say that they have a green thumb . | T | F |
| 11. ' It's just a shower ' means that a hurricane is coming. | T | F |
| 12. ' It's pouring down ' is a synonym of ' it's drizzling '. | T | F |

Developing writing skills

Complete the following phrases with words from the box.

synonyms	vocabulary	introductory	short	concluding
----------	------------	--------------	-------	------------

When carrying out a writing task,

1. ... we should try to use _____. We should avoid using the same word twice.
2. ... we should write an _____ sentence to make the audience feel interested in reading our work.
3. ... we should write a _____ sentence.
4. ... we should write _____ sentences. We should avoid using many commas in one sentence.
5. ... we should try to use _____ and the idioms that we learn in class.