

Complete the text using the phrases below. Remember about the correct grammatical forms.

take - check - pass - attendant - land - enjoy - find a seat - gate - sit - check-in - feel - aisle - wait - duty free - board - serve - back

Last week, I embarked on an exciting trip to a new city. As soon as I _____ a taxi to the airport, I hurried to the _____ counter to get my boarding pass and drop off my suitcase. Thankfully, the process was smooth, and after I was finished, I made my way to the security _____. The line wasn't too long, but I still _____ relieved once I passed through. I _____ in the departure lounge for what felt like hours, but in reality, it was just under 90 minutes. During that time, I grabbed a coffee, browsed the _____ shops for some last-minute buys, and made sure all my travel documents were in order.

Finally, the announcement came over the speakers calling passengers to proceed to the _____ for boarding. With my boarding _____ in hand, I made my way to the gate, eager to get on board. Once I _____ the plane, I scanned the rows to _____. Luckily, it was right by the _____, which meant easy access to the aisle for stretching my legs during the long flight. I _____ down and made myself comfortable, adjusting my seatbelt.

Soon after, the flight _____ came by, checking that all passengers were ready for takeoff. After what seemed like a smooth ascent, the plane reached cruising altitude, and the cabin crew began _____ dinner. The food wasn't too bad, and it was nice to have something to eat while _____ the in-flight entertainment. I watched a movie and took a nap for a little while.

Hours later, the captain announced that we were preparing to land. The descent was smooth, and before I knew it, we had _____ at our destination. The trip was fantastic, filled with sightseeing, good food, and meeting new people. However, after several days, it was time to pack up and fly _____ home.