Michael: Hi! I've _____(1) you to talk about our new classmate, Charlotte's surprise birthday party preparations. It's Tuesday today and so we have got only two days left. I hope everything goes as planned and we can have the party on Thursday at 4 p.m. Barbara, what have you _____(2) so far?

Barbara: I've _____(3) a big chocolate cake and I have bought twelve candles and some sparklers. I have also bought some soft drinks, but I haven't _____(4) the lemonade yet as I will make it Thursday morning.

Michael: That's great, Barbara. How about you, Thomas? Have you finished arranging the music?

Thomas: Yes. I've _____(5) some music CDs from my cousin. The songs are great. Charlotte will definitely love them. I have also talked to my uncle. He will lend us the music system. I will go and get it tomorrow afternoon.

Michael: Well done, Thomas. I have _____(6) the invitation cards, but I haven't _____(7) them yet. I will start doing it later today. What about the party room decorations? Who was going to do it?

Pamela: Asley and me. We have _____(8) a lot of balloons, some confetti and party hats so far, but we haven't _____(9) the banner yet. We will finish it by tomorrow afternoon. We may need some help decorating on Thursday.

Michael: What about the food? Ronald and Sharon were going to deal with it.

Ronald: I have been to the buthcher's and got the steaks for the BBQ. My mum has marinated them.

Sharon: I have _____(10) to the supermarket this morning and bought everything we need for the sandwiches. My dad and uncle will make them Thursday morning and mum will make pancakes.

Michael: OK. Well, I have also _____(11) to a magician for a show on that day. He said he had to check his appointments first, but he hasn't
