

ARRANGE STORY IN SEQUENCE

Name/ Class:

Day/ Date:

Instruction:

- Read each paragraph.
- Try to arrange them into an order story.
- Write the order number of each sentence on the arrangement box! (Ex: 9-8-1-2-4-5-3-6-7)
- Cut story text (look at bottom space of this page) and stick it on the "story board" box below as an order story.

ARRANGEMENT OF THE STORY

STORY BOARD

Cut this part and stick it on the "Story Board" box!

"Mean?" asked Bear. 1
 "Yes," said Bird.
 "You are a big bully!"
 "I think they would make fun of me," said Bear. My big belly. My hairy arms".
 "So what should I do?" asked Bear.

After that, Bear saw Deer. 2
 Look at these skinny legs," he said.
 "You should be called stick-legs."

"Stop it!" said Deer. "That's not nice."
 "Let's get out of here," said Rabbit. 3
 They hopped, hopped, and leaped away

"I have an idea," said Bird. 4
 She whispered in Bear's ear. Bear raced back to his cave. Bird flew to all the animals. She told them Bear had a surprise. When the animals got to Bear's cave, they found food, games, and a big sign. On it were written two important words.

Finally, Bear walked to a river. He sat and held his head low. "
 There are no friends in this forest," he grumbled. Bird flew down beside Bear. "If you want a friend," she said, 5
 "You have to stop being mean."

Next, Bear met Skunk. "Wow," said Bear. "You stink." 6
 "Thank you," said Skunk.
 "That's what I was trying for." Skunk turned around. He lifted his tail.

From that day on, Bear had many friends. 8

"Hoo?", said Owl. 7
 "You," said Bear.
 "Hoo? Hoo?", said Owl.
 "You! You!", said Bear.
 "Hoo! Hoo! Hoot," said Owl.
 "Oh, never mind," said Bear. And he walked on.

Bear lived in a cave,
 In the middle of the forest.
 All alone.
 What Bear needed most was a friend.
 So, he went out to find one.
 Bear spotted Owl. 9
 "Ha, ha!" said Bear.
 You have big, big eyes."