

VERB PATTERNS

(GERUNDS AND INFINITIVES)

1. Underline the correct form of the verb. in one sentence, both verbs may be correct.

- a. I really feel like I deserve doing / to do something special this weekend – I've been working so hard all week.
- b. If I can manage getting / to get the day off on Monday, I could go away for a couple of days.
- c. I'd love going / to go away somewhere – Boston, maybe.
- d. I like visiting / to visit new places, and I've never been to Boston before.
- e. I'd like going / to go by train.
- f. I enjoy being / to be able to see the countryside.
- g. I can't stand flying / to fly. I hate airports and waiting around.
- h. There'll probably be lots of extra work waiting for me when I get back. But I don't intend getting / to get stressed out about it now!
- i. All I want doing / to do is take it easy and relax.

2.- Complete the sentences with the words in the box.

Go insist keeps mad telling complaining

I share an office with a woman who is always (1) _____ ! When she arrives in the morning, she'll (2) _____ on opening all the windows, and then she'll (3) _____ on and on about how cold it is! She (4) _____ leaving half-finished cups of coffee on the desk, but then she'll get (5) _____ at me if I knock them over. She's always me what to do, but she never seems (6) _____ to get any work done herself!