Word Study

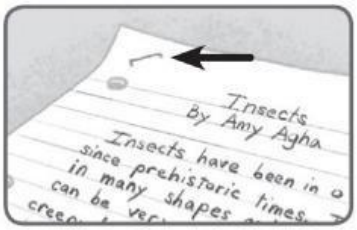

article	bubble	gentle	handle	single	staple

A-Z

A Read each sentence aloud. Circle the word that ends with -le. Underline the consonant that comes before -le. Then match each sentence with a picture and write the letter next to the sentence.

a b

c

d

e

f

1 A gentle breeze blew across the plain. f

2 I need one single baseball card to complete my collection. _____

3 Blowing bubbles is fun. _____

4 I read an article about insects. _____

5 Pick up the shovel by its handle. _____

6 I used a staple to hold my report together. _____

B Read the story. Choose a word from the box above to complete each sentence.

Blowing Bubbles

I was reading an _____ (1) about bubbles when my mom called me for dinner. I ate my dinner. Then I went outside. I took my wand and soapy water. I wanted to make a really big _____ (2). I held the _____ (3) of the wand and dipped it in the soapy water. I blew softly and made a big bubble. There was a _____ (4) breeze. It blew my bubble higher and higher, one _____ (5) bubble rising up to the clouds.

Student Book page 55

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Writing Study

A Complete the sentences with the adjectives in parentheses.

1 A small red ladybug sat on a leaf. (red / small)

2 A _____ _____ grasshopper landed on me. (big / green)

3 A kangaroo has _____ _____ legs. (brown / large)

4 A bumblebee has _____ _____ and _____ stripes on its body. (black / small / yellow)

5 I was wearing a dress with _____ _____ and _____ butterflies on it. (green / little / pink)

6 The sun was setting. There were _____ _____ and _____ clouds in the sky. (blue / purple / big)

B Write about something you would like to describe in a poem.

Read the example below. Use adjectives in your writing. Remember to put size and color adjectives in the correct order.
Use verbs in the present continuous. For example:

The small yellow butterfly was flying.
We were singing.

> A beautiful butterfly was flying in the garden. It had big blue wings with small yellow spots. It landed on a big red flower. It looked up at the sun, and then it flew away.

LIVEWORKSHEETS