

Simple present / Present progressive

1 Which sentence is about an action that is happening now?

Check (✓) a or b.

A It's snowing now. B It often snows in the winter. 1 A I usually wear jeans. B I'm wearing jeans today. 2 A Mark is playing baseball now. B Mark plays baseball every Friday. 3 A They study Art once a week. B They're studying Art right now. 4 A Dad is cooking tonight. B Dad sometimes cooks. 5 A Lucy is writing an email now. B Lucy writes an email every day.

2 Choose the correct alternatives.

Tim always is getting up / gets up at 7:30 a.m.1 I never walk / am walking to school.2 Tim talks / is talking with Grandma now.3 It rarely is raining / rains in July.4 Mom works / is working right now.5 We buy / are buying food once a week.

Present progressive for future

3 Are the actions in the present (P) or the future (F)?

Listen! Megan is singing. PMegan is singing in the concert on Friday. F1 I'm meeting my friends this afternoon. 2 Look! Maria's talking with Lucas. 3 Enzo isn't watching now. 4 We aren't playing tennis on Saturday. 5 Are you going shopping tomorrow?

4 Choose the correct answers.

They are flying to Miami afternoon.A at B this1 What are you doing morning?A next B tomorrow2 I'm going to the dentist three o'clock.A at B next3 Are you having a picnic June 2nd?A tomorrow B on4 The students are going to Recife week.A in B next5 Kenji is starting school September.A in B on