Fang Su

I used to be very competitive when I was younger. I hated losing! Now that I'm older, I'm getting used to slowing down. My husband and children were very excited about a color run in Shenzhen, our city. The race sounded a silly to me, but we entered as a family. We usually jog around the park together on a Sunday morning, so a 5K was a reasonable challenge for us. I have to admit, it was a lot of fun. The aim of the race is to get as messy as possible. At the start, everyone was wearing white clothes. And after every kilometer, machines sprayed us with different colored paint powder. There was no winner, and no one was told their time at the finish line. After the race, I really wanted a shower! But my kids didn't want to leave because there was a party. So we listened to music and all got covered in even more paint!

Shuo

I don't play anymore, but when I was in high school, I was on a soccer team. Most weeks we lost, but I remember how much fun it was to compete with all my friends. Well, I went to college and then moved to Shenzhen. Of course, we all lost touch. Then a few months ago, I started working out at a gym near my office. One day, I recognized Dishu from my old soccer team! We couldn't believe it! We started a Facebook group to find the old team and, last week, five of us completed a color run. I've just posted a photo of us covered in paint. Maybe we'll find the rest of the team now.

Hao

Last year, I entered a 10K race. I wanted to do more exercise because I'd gained a little weight. I lost five pounds, which was great. But I trained too hard and got injured so I couldn't take part in the 10K. It took me two months to recover and that's when I heard about the color run. It was a 5K race, so it was a simpler challenge, and the only goal was to have fun rather than getting a fast time. I entered with Chan from my work. There are only three of us in the office, so I already knew we got along well. We normally jog once or twice a week after work and then we go to a café for coffee and to talk. We can't talk while we jog ... it's too tiring!

- 1 I used to love winning. _____
- 2 I share an office with my training partner. _____
- 3 I didn't use to win many soccer games. _____
- 4 I didn't expect to enjoy the color run. _____
- 5 I completed the color run with my old friends. _____
- 6 I used to weigh more than I do now. _____
