

Chapter 12

Leaders Post Independence

Identify these popular Presidents and Prime Ministers of India using the clues given below :

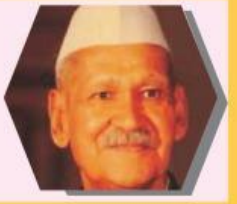

1. A career scientist turned statesman who had a pivotal role in the Pokhran nuclear tests in 1998. Popularly called the 'Missile Man', he was the eleventh President of India (2002-2007).

2. The former president of India who has been awarded several times for his bankable tax reforms while serving as India's Finance Minister during 2000-2013.

3. The first Prime Minister (1977-1979) to head India's non-congress Government and the only Indian to be conferred with Pakistan's highest Civilian Award Nishan-e-Pakistan.

4. The 14th current Prime Minister of India, often called the 'People's leader'. His bold step of banning 500 and 1000 rupees notes in his struggle against corruption, has created ripples globally.

5. This great Indian philosopher and statesman was also the first vice President of India. India celebrates his birthday as 'Teacher's Day.'
