

Prepositions + NOUNS 2

Ex1: Match the sentences on the left with the correct phrases on the right.

Sentences	Phrases
1. He purchased that vintage car at a very low price.	A. At times
2. She left her hometown and moved to the city permanently.	B. For good
3. The young boy couldn't enter the club because he was only 15.	C. By choice
4. I prefer to work late nights voluntarily; it's my decision.	D. By mistake
5. She found her lost keys completely by accident.	E. By chance
6. Although he works hard, he feels tired and stressed sometimes.	F. Under age
7. The chef added too much salt to the dish by accident.	G. For a song
8. She accepted the offer willingly, without any pressure.
9. They bought the house for a bargain price, much cheaper than expected.
10. Despite the careful plan, the event succeeded thanks to a lucky coincidence.

Ex2: Complete the following sentences using the correct phrases: at times, for good, by choice, by mistake, by chance, under age, for a song.

1. He decided to quit his job, and he never looked back.
2., life can be unpredictable, and we must learn to adapt.
3. She joined the army entirely, despite her family's objections.
4. They found the lost painting while cleaning the attic.
5. The teenager was denied entry because she was still ___ according to the law.
6. I bought this antique vase at a garage sale last weekend.
7. He apologized profusely after realizing that he had offended her
8. The weather in this region can be unpredictable, with sudden storms appearing without warning.
9. She didn't regret her decision to live alone; she did it
10. After several attempts to fix their relationship, they decided to end things
11. After years of working abroad, she decided to return home, never to leave again.
12. The item was sold at the auction, far below its actual value.
13. He wasn't forced into the profession but pursued it, following his passion.
14. The young boy, who was, was caught trying to purchase alcohol from the store.
15. She picked up the wrong package and didn't realize until she reached home.

Ms. Minh Ha - 0982194748