My wife, son, and I were guests at your hotel last week. Unfortunately, we                    happy with our room. The room                    clean, and the beds                    awful. And the room                    near the street. The noise                    terrible in the early morning. But the people at the hotel                    great, so that                    good!
