19 Challenged But Ultimate Winners

Physically challenged persons can also do wonders and reach the top. There are many examples. A few of them are described and shown here.

B.S. Chandrashekhar was handicapped by polio. He became a top-class leg spin and googly bowler of India. He took more test wickets than the runs he scored.

When Helen Keller was only nineteen months old, she lost her power of hearing and sight after an illness. She learnt to speak, read and write and became a famous teacher and author.

Stevie Wonder is a very famous singer and songwriter. He is blind. He has won many awards for his songs, the most famous being 'I just called to say I love you.'

Sudha Chandran is an Indian classical dancer and actress. She lost her leg in a road accident. But, she continued her dancing career with an artificial leg.

Ludwig van Beethoven was half-deaf for most of his life and completely deaf when he composed his most famous piece of music-the Ninth Symphony.

John Milton became blind at the age of thirty-three after which he wrote his best works.

Ravindra Jain was born visually impaired, he started singing at a very young age. When he joined the Indian music industry, he became one of the most notable music directors of the 1970s. Apart from composing various 'super-hit' songs for Hindi movies, he had also launched several private albums which were praised by many.

Arunima Sinha lost her leg when some robbers pushed her out of a moving train. Two years later, she became the first woman amputee to climb Mount Everest. She has proved that a strong determination and will is far more important than a strong body. Even with a prosthetic leg, she overcame her challenges and made history.

Stephen Hawking was a physically challenged and wheel-chair bound British scientist and professor of Mathematics at Cambridge, who first visited India in 2001. 'A Brief History of Time' is his international best-seller.

Think Fast

Write the names of these famous persons who have overcome their physical disability.
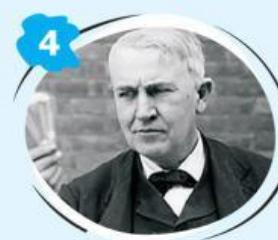

1	2	3	4
_____	_____	_____	_____