

Last Saturday, Maria and her family went to the beach. The weather was sunny and warm, perfect for a day in the sun. Maria wore her favorite blue swimsuit and brought her large beach towel. Her younger brother, Tom, wore a yellow hat to protect himself from the sun.

They arrived early, so the beach was still quiet. The soft sand felt warm under their feet. Maria and Tom built a big sandcastle near the water. After that, they decided to swim in the clear ocean. The water was cool and refreshing, and they spent a long time swimming.

In the afternoon, they ate lunch under a shady umbrella. Maria had a delicious sandwich, and Tom ate some fruit. Before they left, they took a last walk along the beach, collecting smooth stones and colorful shells. It was a wonderful day!
