

Grammar training

-ed/-ing

Adjectives

Match the two halves.

- |  |   |
|--|---|
| 1. You will feel amazed at what you can achieve                | after chasing her energetic twins around the house all day.           |
| 2. Mrs. Green always feels exhausted                           | if the food isn't up to their expectations for the event.             |
| 3. They didn't find the presentation engaging                  | when you stay focused and determined.                                 |
| 4. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson will not be pleased with the catering | because it was filled with too many statistics.                       |
| 5. Julia is going to feel embarrassed                          | forgot his lines during the final act of the play.                    |
| 6. The audience was surprised when the actor on stage          | after searching for hours before my flight.                           |
| 7. I was relieved when I finally found my passport             | when she realizes she wore mismatched shoes to the important meeting. |
| 8. Avery is never bored during science class                   | that I wanted to recommend it to everyone.                            |
| 9. The book was so inspiring                                   | and it motivated me to continue improving.                            |
| 10. The teacher's feedback was uplifting,                      | because she loves conducting experiments.                             |