Exploring the Human Skeleton

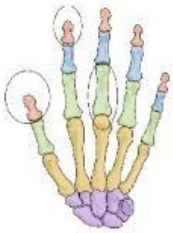

1. Label the human skeleton below with the words from the word bank.

clavicle
cranium
femur fibula
fingers
humerus
jaw patella
pelvis
radius
ribs scapula
sternum
tibia
toes
ulna
vertebrae

2. Label the following bones LONG, FLAT, SHORT, IRREGULAR.

LIVEWORKSHEETS

3. Most bones of the skeleton have a scientific name and a common name. Research and find the common names for the following bones.

Scientific Name of Bone	Common Name of Bone
Cranium
Patella
Clavicle
Femur Scapula
Tibia
Fibula	lower leg bone
Mandible
Sternum
Phalanges	or

4. Write TRUE or FALSE to describe the following sentences.

a. Babies have less bones than adults because babies are smaller. _____

b. The smallest bone is in the ear. _____

c. The largest bone is the spinal column. _____

d. Bones are strengthened by calcium and phosphorus. _____

e. The smooth, outer layer of bone makes our blood cells. _____

f. Bones allow us to have a shape but provide no support. _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS