

EXERCISE 2

A. Read the two sentences. Choose the best definition for the target word.

1. For an economist, money is anything that serves as a medium of exchange, a unit of account, and a store of value.
The extra room on the ground floor serves as both a study and an extra bedroom.
 - a. is included in
 - b. is better or more than
 - c. is used as
2. A medium of exchange is anything that is used to determine value during the exchange of goods and services.
The study will help us determine the level of demand for a new product.
 - a. to find out
 - b. to grow bigger
 - c. to inform people
3. Economists define money in terms of its three uses.
In terms of pay, the job offer was excellent; the hours, however, were terrible.
 - a. working for, earning
 - b. talking about, considering
 - c. looking for, searching
4. For example, when you sell your CD player to purchase a DVD player, you might not have a chance to purchase a DVD player right away.
Students can purchase sports passes at the student affairs office.
 - a. find
 - b. buy
 - c. sell

5. When an economy experiences inflation, money does not function as well as a store of value.
She has to take medication so her heart will function normally.
- get or win something
 - increase or go faster
 - work in a correct way
6. In other words, money provides a means for comparing the values of goods and services.
The article does not provide much information about the costs or conditions.
- gives something or makes it available
 - shows that something is true
 - compares facts or ideas
7. In other words, money provides a means for comparing the values of goods and services.
Facebook is now an important means of communication among young people.
- amount of something good or something you want
 - sum of money that is used to pay for things
 - method or system that you use to achieve a result
8. In the meantime, you can keep the money in your wallet or in a bank.
They plan to wait until gas prices go down and, in the meantime, drive less.
- within a very short period of time
 - in a period of time from now until a future event
 - sometime in the very distant future

EXERCISE 4

- A. Complete the paragraph with words or phrases from the box. Change the words to fit the sentence if necessary.

provide trade serve as specialized in terms of practical

The Mason College of Business is well-known in this country and abroad for its program in international _____¹ and finance. In this program, students follow courses taught by well-known economists and experts. The courses _____² students with an excellent background in business theory and practice. Furthermore, the college gives students opportunities to gain _____³ experience. The program includes a semester-long internship at a _____⁴ firm here or abroad. The internships often _____⁵ a way for students to gain entry into the business world. In fact, the college has an excellent record _____⁶ job placement for graduating students.

- B. Compare answers with another student.

EXERCISE 5

- A. Choose the word from the box that can be used with all the words or phrases in each group. You may use a dictionary.

determine experience means practical provide specialized

1. _____ + suggestion / advice / experience
2. _____ + training / skills / economy
3. _____ + pain / a change / inflation
4. _____ + of survival / of transportation / of communication
5. _____ + meals / advantages / the means
6. _____ + value / the level / policy

EXERCISE 6

- A. Work with another student. Write different forms for each word. If you do not know a form, make a guess. Do not use the dictionary. (More than one answer is possible for some forms.)

Noun	Verb	Adjective	Negative Adjective	Adverb
1.	appreciate			X
2.	determine			X
3. exception	X
4.	function
5.		practical
6.	provide		X
7.	serve			X
8.		specialized
9.		willing		