VOCABULARY

Complete the words in the sentences by adding the correct prefix from the table.

	bi	dis	over	il	im
	pre	re	under	un	in
1.	This is the mostcomfortable sofa I've ever sat on.
2.	His parents have punished him due to his obedience.
3.	I can't understand Pam's letter; her handwriting is definitelylegible.
4.	In the 19th century most people couldn't read or write; they wereliterate.
5.	Patrick used to be rather rude andpolite as a child, but now he's a kind teenager.
6.	Some parts of this region haven't got many people. They'repopulated.
7.	I can't believe what you say. In fact, I think this is the mostbelievable story you've ever told.
8.	Sorry, but what you propose is possible.
9.	My parents were completelysatisfied with my school results.
10.	She needs t	o see a psychia	trist. We think sl	he's going	sane.
Cor	nplete the se	entences by us	ing a word with	a suffix that	can be formed from	n the one in bra	ckets.
1.	Not all snak	kes are	(dange	er) to human l	peings.
2.	Once again he's proving himself to be a player of great (able).
3.	The police	took quick	(act)	to deal with t	the robbery.
4.	I find the constant barking of the neighbour's dog an (annoy).
5.	He is always worried about his (appear).
6.	He was rushed to the hospital but was dead on (arrive).
7.	We must pa	ay	(attend) in	class.
8.	We pay our telephone bill at the (begin) of the month.
9.	The naughty boys were punished for their bad (behave).

10. Saving a drowning man is regarded by most as an act of _____ (brave).

