

TA10. U1. Family life. Vocabulary Fill-in 1

Fill in the blanks with the correct words from the list below.

Words: benefit, bond, breadwinner, character, cheer up, damage, gratitude, grocery, heavy lifting, homemaker, laundry, manner, responsibility, routine, rubbish, spotlessly, strengthen, support, truthful, value, washing-up.

1. Doing household chores together as a family can help _____ the relationship between parents and children.
2. As the main _____ of the family, John works hard to ensure that everyone's needs are met.
3. My mother is a full-time _____; she takes care of the home and the kids.
4. It's important for children to learn _____, like saying "please" and "thank you," at a young age.
5. Parents should teach their kids the _____ of money and how to spend it wisely.
6. Completing household tasks like _____ or cooking dinner teaches children about _____ and teamwork.
7. Tom offered to do all the _____ to _____ his sister after she had a bad day at work.
8. Regular family activities can help _____ trust and understanding among family members.
9. Emily expressed her _____ for all the help she received when she was sick.
10. Jessica goes grocery shopping every Saturday as part of her weekly _____.
11. Tim took out the _____ and made sure the bins were empty before collection day.
12. Cleaning the house _____ can help prevent germs and keep the family healthy.
13. Jim carried out all the _____ at the gym to build his muscles.
14. A person's _____ is often shaped by the values and lessons learned in the family environment.
15. While grocery shopping, be careful not to buy items that could _____ your budget.
16. After dinner, we all take turns doing the _____ to keep the kitchen tidy.

17. Buying _____ in bulk helps save money and ensures that there's always food available.
18. Sarah always tries to be _____, even when the truth might hurt someone's feelings.
19. Learning to do _____ like washing clothes teaches children essential life skills.
20. Providing emotional _____ is as important as giving financial assistance to family members.