Homework

Reading Comprehension

Read the passage and answer the questions.

Anna was having trouble with her math homework. She decided to ask her older brother for help. 'Could you please assist me with this math problem?' she asked. Her brother smiled and said, 'Of course, I'd be happy to help.' Together, they worked through the problems and Anna felt much more confident."

Questions:

a. Who needed help? Anna needed help

b. What subject was Anna having trouble with?

c. Who did Anna ask for help?

d. How did Anna ask for help?

e. Was her brother willing to help?

Exercise 2: Match each sentence in A with the correct Case in B.

A:

1. Can you help me carry these books?
2. Could you assist me in solving this puzzle?
3. Would you mind explaining this recipe to me?
4. I need help setting up the tent.
5. Could you show me how to play this game?

B:

a. You are at a campsite and need help setting up your tent.

b. You are in the library and need help carrying a stack of books.

c. You are at home and trying to understand a new recipe.

d. You are at a friend's house and want to learn how to play a new board game.

e. You are in class and working on a challenging puzzle.

1. Can you help me carry these books? _____
2. Could you assist me in solving this puzzle? _____
3. Would you mind explaining this recipe to me? _____
4. I need help setting up the tent. _____
5. Could you show me how to play this game? _____

LIVEWORKSHEETS